Press Release – Wayne County
Planned Service Reductions – Follow-up

Today the Wayne County Commissioners received confirmation from the Pennsylvania Treasury Department, that Human Services funding has been enacted as part of the approved line-items of the 2015/2016 Commonwealth Budget. We should expect income payments to begin to be released within the next 10 to 14 days.

In light of this information, the planned service reductions and layoffs that were due to take effect on Monday January 4, 2016 are not necessary. NO REDUCTION in any services will occur in Wayne County.

We appreciate the cooperation and assistance as well as understanding of the County's position during this unfortunate situation. Our staff and consumers, as well as many of our providers, have worked together to reduce the potential impact that this crisis could have had in Wayne County.
